* Students MUST inquire directly with each institution's financial aid office in order to clearly understand a state's mandated policies regarding establishment of "In-State" residency as it applies to graduate school/vet school tuition. Most states DO NOT allow a student to establish residency if they move to a state purely to attend school. Some States DO allow this, but each state may have different (and complicated) policies. MAKE SURE YOU UNDERSTAND YOUR OPTIONS BEFORE YOU ACCEPT ADMISSION TO AN OUT-OF-STATE SCHOOL!!

Washington State has a Regional Plan with Utah, and Montana, with a portion of the DVM curricula being taught specifically at Utah State and Montana State, In addition there are WICHE spots for these states – (for students not at these schools) – and Idaho residents.
